

Autumn A 2017 - Tomb Raiders

Week 1 - Welcome Back & Who were the Egyptians?

Mon 4th Sep - Training Day

Tues 5th Sep - Children in (Letter to Bev about holiday)

PSHCE = Class Do-Jos, non-negotiables in books.

Geography - Locate Egypt and geographical features

History - Where the Egyptians civilisation occurred in relation to other recently studied groups (Vikings/Romans)

English - Holiday letter / ideas for research project - how, what, where, when - Look at main areas (pyramids, hieroglyphics, mummies, Nile, Afterlife, Mythology, Pharaohs)

RE - What makes Jesus an inspiration

Focus on Egypt's importance in the bible - Moses/Judaism

Week 2 - Egyptian Way of Life

English - Continuation of project and add to details about Ancient Egyptian life and compare to modern day Egypt (homes, jobs, death, Nile, travel)

ART/DT - Hieroglyphic art

Making Papyrus style paper

RE - What makes Jesus an inspiration

Focus on Egypt's importance in the bible - Moses/Judaism

Computing - Scratch (create moving Egyptian scene)

Week 3 - Residential/Mummification

Year 5/6 - Residential (Mon 18th-Weds 20th)

English - Instruction writing on how to make a mummy
Art/DT - Egyptian design using salt/water mix (linked to nitrate salt used in mummification)

Science - Chn to create their own mummy using a tomato

History - Focus on famous pharaohs - chn to choose one and write a report about them.

RE - What makes Jesus an inspiration

Week 4/5 - Howard Carter and Tutankhamun (Harvest Festival - date tbc)

English - Story writing, recount, adventure discovery of ancient tomb, newspaper article

DT - Create a sphinx (clay, papier mache)

Art - Tutankhamun artwork

Computing - Horrible Histories style video report on Howard Carter discovery

RE - The Life of Moses (Old Testament - Understanding Christianity)

Week 6/7 - Mythology and Afterlife

English - The curse of Tutankhamen (horrible histories video)

Art - Depiction of gods using a range of media (paint, pastels etc..)

RE - The Life of Moses (Old Testament - Understanding Christianity)